Lifework

1. How did Rosaria Butterfield's testimony enlighten or challenge your understanding?
2. Why is it so important to frame this "issue" in a certain context?
3. Imagine that sexuality and gender intersected with your life in a different way than it does. Think of a specific situation that you could see yourself facing. What would a truthful and gracious response look like? [Examples: friend reveals they're trans, you're invited to a gay wedding, a friend discloses they're rethinking their gender or struggling with dysphoria, etc.]
4. Think of examples from the Bible that illustrate this Rosaria Butterfield quote, "God deals with us differently, as we deal differently with Him."
